

Samsung SMT-i5220 Handset Layout and Functions

1. LED (TSI) – Telephone Status Indicator	The blinking pattern differs depending on the phone status	11. Speaker	Use to enable / disable hands free / on speaker functions
2. Forward, Do Not Disturb, Absent function	Use to select or deselect Forward, Do Not Disturb or Absent messages	12. Headset	Use to enable / disable to headset connection
3. User Defined Keys	Provide access to phone lines, web based services and phone features	13. Volume + / -	Use to adjust the volume setting
4. Navigation / Enter	Scroll through menu items (outer ring). Select menu item (centre)	14. Mute	Disable / Enable handpiece and handset microphones
5. Conference	Used for conference calls	15. Service	Used with Unified Communicator Server (optional)
6. Transfer	Use to access the call transfer function	16. Message	Use to access all messaging features
7. Hold	Used to place a call on Hold	17. Phone Book	Use to access or add a stored phone number
8. Programmable Keys	Set as common functions	18. Handpiece
9. Microphone	Use for hands free / on speaker functions	20 LCD Screen	Displays phone status and other information
10. Dial Keys	Used to dial a phone number or extension	21. Soft Keys	Access functions shown on LCD directly above each key

Plexus Communications hopes that this information is of value to you. Please contact us for any additional advice regarding your Telephone Systems and Telecommunications requirements. We specialize in the supply and installation of Telephone Systems from Major Brands such as Samsung, NEC Alcatel and Aristel as well as a range of quality Commander Systems. We provide and a range Voicemail Solutions from Samsung Telephone Systems, NEC Telephone Systems, Alcatel Telephone System and Aristel Telephone Systems, Conference Phones , Headsets from Plantronics and GN Netcom as well a range of discount telephone calls to local , National. International and calls to mobiles destinations.

Call Plexus for further information 1300 302 276